

Official Report of the Games of the XXIIIrd Olympiad Los Angeles, 1984

*I am the Olympic Games.
reach out for the space in the distances
where all thoughts to excel
join together
and fly with the strength of the labors of Hercules
to declare infinitely across the universe, that this my body is.*

*I am the Olympic Games,
gathered from all lands
to celebrate the gifts of struggle
of each man and woman
to expand the physical possibilities of themselves.
I come to excite the imagination,
to make the harmony of the extreme natures of man
and prove that the earth moves only according to the quality of life at play.*

*Je représente les Jeux Olympiques.
Je veux atteindre ce point de l'espace
où toutes les pensées d'excellence se rassemblent.
Je vole
avec la vigueur d'Hercule
pour proclamer dans tout l'univers l'existence de mon corps.*

*Je représente les Jeux Olympiques,
moisson glanée sur toutes les terres
pour célébrer la volonté de lutte,
de dépassement de soi-même
qui habite tous les hommes, toutes les femmes.
Je viens pour enthousiasmer,
pour harmoniser les extrêmes
de l'homme,
pour prouver
que la terre n'évolue que selon
la qualité de la vie qui l'anime.*

Readers should note the following regarding the text of the Official Report:

- Use of male pronouns in the text imply the female throughout as appropriate.
- Measurements have been stated as actually made or used; thus, most measurements are stated using the U.S. Customary System. Interested readers should find little difficulty in converting the measurements presented to metric measurements if desired.
- The editors followed a general policy of identifying individuals by function rather than by name. It was felt that this would provide a clearer understanding of the interaction between departments and organizations and more properly reflect the collective accomplishments made during the organizing and operational periods.

A look back at the Games of the XXIIIrd Olympiad July 28 — August 12, 1984

28 Opening Ceremonies set the tone for an exciting two weeks with a spectacular four-hour production.

Highlights included an appearance by a rocket man and a musical medley played by the All-American Olympic Marching Band entitled "Music of America." A procession of 140 nations paraded into the Coliseum in slightly less than 1½ hours. Remarks were made by LAOOC President Peter Ueberroth and IOC President Juan Antonio Samaranch, while the President of the United States, Ronald Reagan, gave the welcoming proclamation. The Olympic torch was carried into the stadium by Gina Hemphill and the Olympic flame was lit by Rafer Johnson.

29 Xu Haifeng (CHN) wins the first gold medal awarded at the Games in the free pistol competition and it is the first medal ever won in Olympic competition by the People's Republic of China. Steve Lundquist (USA) and Michael Gross (FRG) set world records in the 100-meter breaststroke and 200-meter freestyle, respectively. More than 200,000 spectators crowd the streets of Mission Viejo to witness U.S. athletes Connie Carpenter-Phinney and Alexi Grewal win the individual road races in cycling.

30 Alex Baumann (CAN) establishes an Olympic record in the 400-meter individual medley, the first gold medal in swimming for his country in 72 years. Michael Gross (FRG) sets his second world record, finishing first in the 100-meter butterfly. The 4 x 200-meter freestyle relay team from the USA sets a world record edging the quartet from the FRG anchored by Gross. Wu Shude (CHN) wins the bantamweight (56 kg) division in weightlifting as China captures the gold and silver medals for the second straight day.

31 USA surprisingly wins the team competition in men's gymnastics, its first gymnastics team medal in the 52 years the team medal has been awarded. The USA also captures five gold medals in swimming as Tiffany Cohen (400-meter freestyle) and Rowdy Gaines (100-meter freestyle) set Olympic records. CHN extends its domination in weightlifting, capturing the gold medal for the third straight day, this time by Weiqiang Chen in the featherweight (60 kg) category.

1 Romania captures the team title in women's gymnastics behind the stellar performance of Ecaterina Szabo while Malcolm Cooper (GBR) equals the world record in winning the small bore rifle event. Steve Fraser (USA) wins the light heavyweight (90 kg) division in Greco-Roman wrestling, his country's first gold medal ever in the sport. Daniele Masala (ITA) wins the modern pentathlon and paces the Italians to the team title. Steve Hegg (USA) captures the 4000-meter pursuit in cycling and CHN again wins the gold medal in weightlifting.

2 Koji Gushiken (JPN) wins the all-around gymnastics competition, scoring no less than 9.9 in any of his six routines. Karl-Heinz Radschinsky (FRG) ends the CHN winning streak in weightlifting by winning the middleweight (75 kg) division. Victor Davis (CAN) sets a world record in his victory in the 200-meter breaststroke and Wu Xiaoxuan (CHN) becomes the first Chinese athlete ever to win two medals as she finishes first in the small bore standard rifle event after capturing the bronze medal in air rifle three days earlier.

3 Mary Lou Retton (USA) wins the women's all-around championship in gymnastics, the first medal ever for an American woman in the all-around competition. Mexico and France win their first gold medals of the Games: Ernesto Canto paces a 1-2 finish for Mexico in the 20-kilometer walk and Philippe Heberle (FRA) tops the field in the air rifle event. In cycling, Australia wins the team pursuit competition and Roger Ilegems (BEL) captures the individual points race. Mark Todd (NZL) wins the equestrian three-day event aboard "Charisma" for his country's first medal in the event.

4 Li Ning (CHN) wins three gold medals in individual gymnastics competition: rings, floor exercise and side horse. Carl Lewis (USA) wins the 100-meter dash and Glynis Nunn (AUS) captures the first-ever Olympic women's heptathlon. Alex Baumann (CAN) wins his second gold medal by winning the 200-meter individual medley in world record time. The USA sweeps all the relays to finish with 21 gold medals in swimming. Romanian rowers win five of six events, finishing second in the one event they did not win.

5 Joan Benoit (USA) wins the first women's marathon in Olympic history by nearly 1½ minutes. Edwin Moses (USA) finishes first in the 400-meter intermediate hurdle race, his 105th consecutive victory and a repeat of his 1976 Olympic victory. Evelyn Ashford (USA) set an Olympic record in scoring an easy victory in the women's 100 meters. Ecaterina Szabo (ROM) wins three gold medals in individual gymnastics events: vault, balance beam and floor exercise. Canada wins the glamour race in rowing, the men's eights, while Italy captures cycling's 100-kilometer team time trial.

6 Joaquim Cruz (BRA) sets an Olympic record in the 800 meters, the only gold medal captured by Brazil during the Games. Valerie Brisco-Hooks (USA) wins the women's 400 meter run, the first of her three gold medals. Alberto Cova (ITA) wins the 10,000-meter run, the first time an Italian runner has ever won this event. Japan and USA advance to the baseball final by scoring semi-final wins over TPE and KOR, respectively. Sylvie Bernier (CAN) finishes first in the women's springboard diving event, bettering Canada's best previous finish, a bronze medal in 1956. Italy wins the men's team foil led by Mauro Numa who four days earlier won the individual foil.

7 On a day when many team championships were decided, China captures women's volleyball, Cheryl Miller paces the United States women to the basketball gold medal and Japan defeats the USA 6-2 in baseball. Yugoslavia clinches the championship in men's handball with a 19-18 victory over Romania and the USA wins the equestrian team jumping event. In yachting, Spain, New Zealand and the USA all clinch gold medals.

8 Nawal El Moutawakel wins the first women's 400-meter intermediate hurdle event—the first gold medal ever won by a Moroccan athlete. Alonzo Babers (USA) wins an exciting 400-meter run edging Gabriel Tiacoh (CIV), who wins his nation's first-ever medal, and Carl Lewis (USA) leads a USA medal sweep in the 200 meter dash. A crowd of more than 100,000 at the Rose Bowl watches France defeat Yugoslavia in overtime, 4-2, assuring the French of their first medal ever in football. Dinko Lukim (AUS) wins the super-heavyweight weightlifting title (110 + kg) and Greg Louganis (USA) takes the springboard diving gold medal.

9 Daley Thompson (GBR) wins the decathlon, repeating his Moscow Olympic triumph in 1980, and misses setting a world record by one point. Yugoslavia clinches the gold medal in women's handball by scoring a 31-25 victory over China while Tracie Ruiz and Candy Costie (USA) capture the gold medal in the initial Olympic synchronized swimming duet competition. FRG wins the team dressage event in equestrian and the USA advances a total of 10 boxers to the gold-medal bouts.

10 Julius Korir (KEN) becomes the only Kenyan athlete to win a gold medal at the Games by scoring an impressive victory in the 3000-meter steeplechase. Ulrike Meyfarth (FRG) repeats her 1972 Olympic victory by capturing the women's high jump and Agneta Andersson (SWE) wins two gold medals in canoeing as her King and Queen look on. The USA wins the gold medal in men's basketball 96-65 over Spain and Yugoslavia edges Italy 2-1 to finish third in football. New Zealand continues to dominate men's canoeing events and Yugoslavia ties the USA 5-5 in water polo, but wins the gold medal on goal differential. Zhao Jihong (CHN) wins the women's platform diving competition and Italy takes a fencing gold medal in team sabre.

11 Carl Lewis anchors the USA 4 x 100-meter relay team to victory in world record time, accomplishing his goal of winning four gold medals. The USA also wins all four athletics' relays, the first time one nation has done so in Olympic history. Sebastian Coe (GBR) wins his second consecutive Olympic 1500-meter crown to become the first runner in Olympic history to attain this feat. Pakistan wins the gold medal in men's hockey for its only medal in the 1984 Olympics. Closing Ceremonies conclude the Games of the XXIIIrd Olympiad with a breathtaking show in the Coliseum. Included in the show is a visit by a spaceship, the traditional parade of athletes, the extinguishing of the Olympic flame and a spectacular fireworks show. The evening and the Games come to an end with a nine-minute performance by recording artist Lionel Richie.

28 Cérémonies d'ouverture: quatre heures d'un spectacle exceptionnel donnent le ton des deux semaines qui vont suivre. Parmi les moments inoubliables: l'apparition de l'homme-fusée et le fabuleux pot-pourri musical interprété par la fanfare olympique "All American Marching Band". Le défilé des athlètes appartenant aux 140 nations, dans le stade du Coliseum, dura au total un peu moins d'une heure et demie. Après que M. Peter Ueberroth, Président du LAOOC, et S.E. M. Juan Antonio Samaranch, Président du CIO, eurent pris la parole, c'est M. Ronald Reagan, Président des Etats-Unis, qui proclame l'ouverture des Jeux. Le flambeau olympique pénètre dans le stade, porté par Gina Hemphill et c'est à Rafer Johnson que revient l'honneur d'allumer la flamme olympique.

29 Xu Haifeng (CHN) remporte la première médaille d'or des Jeux au titre de l'épreuve de tir au pistolet. C'est la première médaille olympique remportée par la République Populaire de Chine. Steve Lundquist (USA) et Michael Gross (FRG) établissent de nouveaux records du monde au 100m brasse et au 200m nage libre. Le relais 4 x 200m nage libre est remporté par l'équipe des Etats-Unis qui établit un nouveau record du monde, en battant de très peu l'équipe de la République Fédérale d'Allemagne menée par Gross. 31 Les Etats-Unis créent une surprise en remportant, pour la première fois depuis la création de cette médaille il y a 52 ans, l'épreuve de gymnastique masculine par équipe. Ce même jour, les Etats-Unis récoltent cinq médailles d'or en natation, tandis que Tiffany Cohen (400m nage libre) et Rowdy Gaines (100m nage libre) établissent de nouveaux records olympiques. 5 Joan Benoit (USA) remporte le premier marathon féminin de l'histoire olympique avec une avance de près d'1 minute 30 secondes. Le Canada remporte l'épreuve reine de l'aviron, le huit avec barreur, tandis qu'en cyclisme, l'Italie gagne l'épreuve des 100km contre la montre.

6 Joaquim Cruz (BRA) établit un nouveau record olympique du 800m; ce sera pour le Brésil, la seule médaille d'or de ces Jeux. Valerie Brisco-Hooks (USA) gagne le 400m féminin, première des trois médailles d'or qu'elle va récolter. Alberto Cova (ITA) remporte le 10 000m. premier coureur italien à gagner cette épreuve. Le Japon et les Etats-Unis se qualifient pour la finale du baseball en remportant les demi-finales, respectivement sur Chinese Taipei et la Corée. Sylvie Bernier (CAN) est médaille d'or de plongeur au tremplin, améliorant ainsi sensiblement la meilleure performance de son pays dans cette épreuve (une médaille de bronze obtenue en 1956). Groupée derrière Mauro Numa qui avait remporté l'épreuve individuelle quatre jours auparavant, l'Italie remporte l'épreuve du fleuret par équipe.

7 C'était la journée des sports d'équipe et des titres par équipe: la République Populaire de Chine remporte le volley-ball féminin, Cheryl Miller emmène l'équipe féminine américaine vers la médaille d'or de basket-ball et le Japon remporte le titre de baseball en battant les Etats-Unis 6 à 2. médaille de bronze de football. La Nouvelle-Zélande continue de dominer les épreuves de canoë et la Yougoslavie se retrouve à égalité avec les Etats-Unis, 5 à 5, en water-polo, mais se voit attribuer la médaille d'or grâce à son meilleur goal average. Lewis réalise ainsi l'ambitieux objectif des quatre médailles d'or qu'il s'était assigné, tandis que les Etats-Unis gagnent les quatre courses de relais d'athlétisme: c'est la première fois dans l'histoire olympique qu'un pays réussit cette performance. Autre première olympique, Sebastian Coe (GBR) remporte, dans le 1500m, sa deuxième médaille d'or consécutive. Avec le titre de hockey masculin, le Pakistan gagne sa seule médaille d'or des Jeux de 1984. Hyang-Soon Seo et Jin-Ho Kim (KOR) gagnent les premières médailles de tir à l'arc jamais remportées par leur pays, finissant première et troisième des épreuves féminines. La France remporte la médaille d'or de football par 2 à 0 sur le Brésil, tandis qu'en boxe les Etats Unis récoltent neuf médailles d'or.

12 Carlos Lopes remporte le marathon masculin, donnant ainsi au Portugal sa première médaille dans l'épreuve. Greg Louganis (USA) et Tracie Ruiz (USA) gagnent leur deuxième médaille d'or, le premier en plongeur de haut-vol, la seconde en natation synchronisée. En équitation, Joe Fargis (USA) et Conrad Homfeld (USA) finissent premier et second dans l'épreuve individuelle de sauts d'obstacles. Les Jeux de la XXIIIe Olympiade s'achèvent au stade du Coliseum par un spectacle féérique. L'apparition d'un vaisseau spatial de rêve, la grande parade des athlètes, la cérémonie d'extinction de la flamme olympique et la multiple splendeur du feu d'artifice soulèvent l'enthousiasme des spectateurs. La soirée et les Jeux se terminent en musique avec le chanteur Lionel Richie.
